PROGRAMMES OFFERED

The Crescent School of Law curriculum combines the knowledge acquisition of different branches of law with a development of critical skills like reasoning, argumentation and negotiation. The programs at CSL are structured on wide ranging courses that incorporate high academic standards and include subjects relevant to both present and new-age careers. The blend of Legal Aspects with modules from Management, Humanities and Social Sciences provide holistic learning to broaden the student's understanding of the course.

CORE SUBJECTS

The core subjects are fundamental to the understanding of Law. They build the foundation of legal understanding and application, allowing students to know the basic rules, underlying principles and jurisprudence.

CLINICAL SUBJECTS

Applied law is taught through these courses that make students learn the ethics of the profession. Adjudication through mediation, conciliation and arbitration as well as professional skills such as client interviewing, drafting, pleading, conveyancing, communicating, critical thinking and analytical thinking are in the curriculum.

ELECTIVES and HONOURS SUBJECTS

There is a wide range of courses that enables students to choose subjects of their interest, aligned with the future of work. Electives and Honours are contemporary courses incorporating the latest social and technological advances requiring legal interventions. The students may make a choice in any area they want to specialize in, some of which are listed below.

Maritime law, Competition law, Forensic law, Media law, Intellectual property law, Election law, Banking law, Cyber law

LIBRARY

CSL has a resourceful library, with access to a wide range of books from various disciplines for an extensive research. An uninterrupted access of online resources is available to encourage students to research from a variety of national and international journals and reading materials.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

Through Moot Court participations, Internships, Field Visits, Debates and Legal Aid Clinics students get to experience the professional world of law during their course of study. This helps them gain insight into the real world and develop the required skills set to excel in the field of law.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Our Law graduates will have a plethora of career opportunities, ranging from practicing as an advocate in a court of law, working with corporate firms, to judgeship. After gaining experience, our law graduates can explore opportunities to become a Public Prosecutor or offer services to government agencies, ministers and private sectors. They can also work as legal advisors for various organizations. Law courses at CSL have been designed to develop the understanding and skills ranging from advocacy to working with corporate houses, NGO(s), public and judicial services. Crescent Law school equips the students for almost any profession that requires intellectual abilities along with a practical approach to the issues.
