

Employability Skills Training

Career Development Centre have successfully conducted the GED 4101 Employability Skills (1 credit) course with the association of the Department of English.

The course was conducted through a CDC training partner and 48 students out of 220 registered, actively participated in the program. The training was a 5 full day programme commenced from 08.07.2024 to 12.07.2024

