Report on the Guest Lecture on “Content Writing as a Career: Preparation and Job Opportunities”

31st March 2023

A guest Lecture was organized by the department of English on 31.3.2023 at the seminar Hall, CSB, from 11.00 am to 12.40 pm. Ms. Supraja Krishnan, Product marketing manager at Salesforce, Bengaluru, was the resource person. The lecture was open only to a niche audience of 60 members with a flair for writing. All the students of B. A. English and the registered B.Tech students participated in the lecture. The full-time research scholars and the English department faculty attended the guest lecture. The resource person was highly experienced in content writing, and her lecture was very well received and appreciated by the students and the faculty.

The guest lecture had three segments. In the first part, she focused on the salient features of content writing, which is encapsulated below:

- Content writing is a rapidly growing field, with numerous job opportunities and a wide range of specialisations. To pursue a career in content writing, one needs to develop strong writing skills, learn the basics of SEO, and familiarise themselves with the latest trends in the industry.
- To prepare for a career in content writing, one needs to develop a strong foundation in writing. Reading widely and practising writing regularly is indispensable to developing these skills.
- In addition to writing skills, content writers also need to learn the basics of using keywords, optimising content for search engines, and how to analyse content.
- With the proper preparation and training, anyone can pursue a career in content writing and succeed in this exciting and dynamic field.

In the second part, the speaker focused on the different specialisations of content writing, which include:

1. Copywriting: Writing content for advertising and marketing campaigns.
2. Technical writing: Writing manuals, guides, and other technical documentation.
3. Blogging: Writing articles for blogs and online publications.
4. Social media writing: Writing posts and captions for social media platforms.
5. Content editing: Editing and proofreading content written by others.

The speaker dwelt on the numerous job opportunities in traditional and non-traditional settings in the third part. Some of the most common job titles in content writing include:

1. Content writer: Writing and producing content for websites, blogs, and other online platforms.
2. Copywriter: Writing advertising and marketing copy for print, online, and broadcast media.
3. Technical writer: Creating technical documentation for software, hardware, and other products.
4. Social media manager: Developing and executing social media campaigns, including writing posts and captions.
5. Content strategist: Developing and implementing content strategies for businesses and organizations.

Finally, in the Q and A session, she addressed how to create engaging and compelling content that stands out in a crowded online space, the different types of content writing, and what skills are required for each. The importance of creating a LinkedIn profile and posting sensible content in the online space was emphasized. The guest lecture inspired all the participants.

Report on the Guest Lecture on “Researching TSOP – Why it matters”

07th February 2023

The department of English of B.S. Abdur Rahman Crescent Institute of Science and Technology organized a guest lecture on “Researching TSOP – Why it matters” by Dr. Jayakaran Mukundan, Professor and Senior Research Fellow, Taylor’s University, Malaysia. The programme was held on 07.02.2023 from 12 noon to 1.25 p.m. at CSB Seminar Hall in hybrid mode.

Dr. Uma Maheswari, Assistant Professor, welcomed the speaker and the audience. Ms. FaheemaJafferin introduced the speaker to the audience comprising students of B.A. (English), research scholars and faculty of the department of English.

The guest speaker, Dr. JayakaranMukundan, explained the term TSOP (Teachers’ Sense of Plausibility) first used by Mr. Prabhu. He detailed on the project on TSOP headed by Alan Maley. Out of the twenty teachers chosen from all over the world for the project, Dr. Mukundan represented Malaysia. He talked about his role in the project and the steps he took in identifying the master-teacher and tracing the master-teacher’s evolution from a nervous beginner to a philosopher over a period of thirty years. He also elaborated on the various tools used by him in the study and concluded by saying that one teacher’s history is the valuable lesson to all others in the field.

The lecture was followed by a brief question and answer session. Mr. Hari Shankar proposed the vote of thanks. The session was both intense and interactive. Since the topic is recent in the field of ELT, it opened a new vista to the participants. On the whole it was a rewarding experience of learning for all.

A Report on the Short Term Course “Speaking Effectively for Interviews” February – August 2023

The Department of English conducted a 30-hour course on “Speaking Effectively for Interviews.” The course content was exclusively designed to cater to the needs of the students of B.Tech 6th semester. The main objective of the course was to provide intensive training for candidates who needed additional support to improve their speaking skills in order to perform well in interviews.

The content of the course was meticulously prepared by Dr. S. Vijayakumar, Mr. T. Sugadev, and Dr. S. Poornima. The content was framed in such a way that thorough training could be given to the students on Interview Skills and Group Discussion.

A circular containing the details of the course was sent to all the departments and students were encouraged to join the course to upskill their interview skills. A nominal fee of Rs. 500/- was collected from each student in order to meet the expenses towards the honorarium for the faculty and non-teaching staff. Students of 6th semester eagerly approached the course coordinators and enrolled themselves. A total of 21 students registered for the course successfully.

The classes successfully began on 15th February 2023 (Wednesday) and on the first day of the class, Dr. P. Rathna, Professor & Head, English addressed the students and underscored the importance of speaking skills and the need for such a course. The classes were then handed over to Mr. Sugadev and he trained the students on the various aspects of interview skills such as building self-confidence, preparing for offline/online interviews, vocabulary, body language, etiquettes, and resume preparation. Then the classes were taken over by Dr. Poornima and vigorous training was given to the students on group discussion techniques and skills.

The students eagerly attended the classes and benefited from the course. Intense training on Interview Skills and Group Discussion techniques was given to the students. As a result, students acquired skills that are necessary for them to face interview conversations, questions, and discussions confidently.

The course was converted into hybrid mode due to various reasons from the students' end such as CAT Examinations, Ramzan fasting period, and End Semester Examination. Out of the 30 hours, 16 physical classes were conducted by Mr. T. Sugadev and Dr. S. Poornima and rest as virtual classes using video lectures.

An assessment was also conducted on 19th August 2023 (Saturday) after the effective completion of the classes. Out of 21 students, 10 students attended the assessments on Group Discussions and Mock Interview tests. Due to their internships, other students were unable to attend. Subsequently, Dr. P. Rathna, Head, Department of English once again addressed the students and asked them for their feedback on the course and course material. The students were encouraged to provide their honest feedback and they were also requested to provide suggestions for similar courses in the future.

Overall, the short-term course on “Speaking Effectively for Interviews” was a success and it helped the students enhance and develop their speaking skills and self-confidence. It also aided them to understand the nuances of group discussions and interview skills.

Conquering Interview Fears!

I am truly excited to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the English Department of BSA Crescent Institute of Science and Technology for their exceptional initiative in introducing interview skill development course.

English Department of BSA Crescent Institute of Science and Technology recently organized a transformative short-term course, "Speaking Effectively for Interviews." This initiative aimed to equip students with the confidence and skills they need to excel in interviews and conquer any fears that may hold them back.

The course delved into various aspects of interview preparation, from honing communication techniques to mastering body language and presentation skills. It was heartening to witness students engage passionately and actively in the learning process, demonstrating their dedication to personal and professional growth.

My sincere appreciation goes to the Head of the English Department Mrs. Rathna P and the team of educators Sugadev Thalapathy who organized this valuable course.
