Students Feedback

My name is Nafisad Afeesa.J (RRN:23144601021), currently pursuing B.Com(Accounts and Finance) in section “A”. Recently, I had the privilege of embarking on my first industrial visit, an experience that left me thoroughly impressing one. Witnessing the inner workings of a manufacturing unit up close was truly captivating. This inaugural visit underscored the immense value of industrial tours in providing students like me with a firsthand understanding of industrial operations, machinery functioning, and underlying principles. Stepping out of the conventional classroom setting, these visits offer a refreshing break from the routine lectures, fostering practical learning and facilitating direct interactions with faculty members and industry experts. Such experiences are instrumental in preparing students for the realities they will encounter in their future endeavors.

The products showcased were of exceptional quality, with meticulous attention to ensuring freshness and purity. I had an opportunity to experiences how financial needs and challenges in lending practices, farm credit programs, government subsidies, and insurance has been designed to support dairy farmers, moreover I had fun experiencing how milk is processed, pasteurization, and then packed in milk packages. Overall, my visit to ponlait was truly outstanding, and I wholeheartedly endorse their products to anyone in search of top-tier service and quality goods.
