Department of English
Report on the Intra- Department Event "Litlume"

As part of the Crescent Literarian Hub's ongoing literary initiatives, the second-year B.A. English students organized the intra-departmental event LITLUME on 25th February 2025 (Tuesday).. The program was curated specifically for the first- and third-year students of the B.A. English programme. Dr. P. Rathna, Professor and Head of the Department, was the Convenor, while Dr. A. Catherine Anna Pushpam, Assistant Professor (Senior Grade) was the Faculty Coordinator.

The second-year students of B.A. English took charge as student coordinators, overseeing the smooth execution of the event. The event commenced with a soulful Quirath recitation by Aathif Hasan and Fahima, setting a contemplative tone for the day. This was followed by a dramatic rendition of a scene from Christopher Marlowe's Dr. Faustus, performed by second-year students Ashima, Fahima, Aathif Hasan, and Vignesh Arrunraj. Their enactment brought to life the tragic grandeur of Marlowe's classic.

Next the most awaited competitive events were conducted.

Event 1 – Scrambled Sentences

The participants should unscramble the jumbled words to form a proper sentence within the given time.

Event 2 – Literary Charades

The title of famous works of literature is to be acted out without any words and the team members must identify the correct literary work.
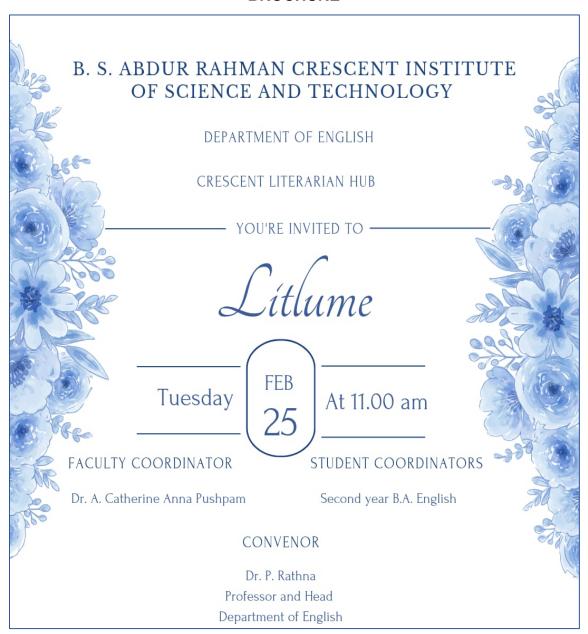

Event 3 – 2 Truths 1 Lie

From the three given statements, participants must identify one false statement. These statements are about famous authors or literary works.

By the end of the competition, Dr. P. Rathna addressed the audience, offering her commendations to the performers for their commendable efforts. She also provided insightful feedback on their presentation and encouraged all students to engage proactively in intercollegiate competitions and future departmental endeavours, emphasizing the importance of holistic academic and creative development.
